(FOR THE BANNER.) TO A MOSS ROSE BUD.

Thou art beautiful and faultless, fair Rose Bud now.

BY KATE.

As thou deck'st so gracefully, you fair maiden's brow I have looked at thee closely: fair, lovely

And find nothing is wanting; for thou art complete.

Geins, I have seen, rich, costly and rare, Diamonds and precious stones, dazzling and fair-

Yet the crown of perfection in fullness thou hast, For I've scarce seen thee equalled, and never surpassed.

But be thou not haughty-oh! be thou not vain-

Thou art short liv'd and transient-thou canst not retain All thy lovely perfections; for they will not stay: And thyself, in a week, will have all passed away.

(FOR THE P NER.)

Lines Written on the 4th of July.

Once Tyranny, with iron hand, Held ruthless sway o'er this fair land, And through our country's wide domains, Her patriot heroes grouned in chains.

But as we struggled with our foes, The Bethlahem star of freedom rose: Its beams illum'd Columbia's sky, And brightened all her destiny.

Then freemen came from every land To join our little patriot band: And Liberty her flag unfurl'd, Triumphant through the western world.

When Freedom's battle field was won, That star became a glorious sun, And on this morn with genial ray, It ushured in its natal day.

Dress of Mind.—On Sunday morn ing, before going to church, what a dressing there is among all classes, and what a stir to look gay and pleasing! Is it quite sufficient for the great purpose of our existence, to wash the outside of the platter? Curls may be arranged, fine cortoise shell combs fixed, sparkling earrings hung, splendid garments displayed, and yet, perhaps, the gay fair one's mind may be poisoned with conceit, troubled with rivalry, and kept on the torture by ignorance and vanity. Windsor soap does not wash out the stains of the heart. Cologne water cannot throw a fragrance over an impure mind, nor all the rubies of Golconda dazzle the recording angel into forgetfulness of filling up the leaves of the book of retribution.

Since the recent order for increasing the inducements for seamen to enter the Navy, the rate of enlisting seems to be visibly augmenting. Seventy-two were received last week at the naval rendezvous, in New York. The men and $15 to ordinary seamen.

Two boys at Portland, Maine, while at play, discovered a stake driven in the ground some distance. They attempted to pull it up, but as there appeared to be something at the bottom of it, their curiosity was excited, and they dug down till a chest, keg or box was discovered, which, on opening, was found to contain about $11,000 in gold and silver.

BEES PRESERVED FROM MOTHS .-To prevent the moth laying its eggs under the hive, I have for the last several years cut a mortice in the bench about an inch deep, and about two inches larger than the hive, and the hive is then set in this mortice, and the space of about one inch all around it is filled with mortar, then three inch auger holes are bored in the hive about two inches from the bench, for the egress of the bees, and a small auger-hole through the bottom of the bench to let off water should any get in the hive. I have near night watched the moths attempting to enter through these holes, and seen the bees chasing them away .- Southern Planter.

makes the following apology to his patrons for the want of editorial and reading matter in his paper: "We have no news to spare this week, no spare space to put it in, nor no spare hands to set it up; and, what is more, our devil is sick, our paper give out, our ink dried up, and our wife run off; and, taking everything into consideration, we do not intend to bestir ourselves a great deal until our subscribers send us in a few pounds of that bacon and a few bushels of them potatoes promised us a 'long time ago?"

A man as often gets two dollars for the one he spends in informing his mind, as he does for a dollar he lays out in any other way. A man eats up a pound of sugar and it is gone, and the pleasure he enjoyed has ended; but the information he gets from a newspaper is treasured up in the mind to be enjoyed anew, and to be used whenever occasion or inclination calls for it. A newspaper is not the wisdom of one man; it is the wisdom of the age, and past ages too.

It was among the loveliest customs of the ancient to bury their young at morning twilight; for as they strove to give the softest interpretation to death, so they imagined that Aurora, who loved the young had stolen them to her embrace.

Old sayings are often like pickled cucumbers more valuable after their preservation than when, they were fresh.

DR. HULL'S Vegetable Fever and Ague and Anti Fever Pills.

Among all the advertised remedies of the day for ague and Fever, or Chill and Fever, none seem to meet with such rapidity of sale and give so much general satisfac-tion, as Dr Hull's celebrated Pills. Wher-ever they have been introduced, all tonics in whatever shape, all mixtures and Pills and preparations of every character, designed for this disease, have been discarded, and Dr. Hull's Ague Pills have been received as the only permanent cure.

They stop the Chills and Fever the first day, and do not sicken the stomach or operate on the bowels. Young children and persons of all ages sexes, and conditions may use these Pills, not only with safety, but with the certainty of success.

Judge Forrest of Jonesboro, Ala, was cured of a severe and obstinate case of Chills, with only half a box, after two physicians had exhausted all their skill.

Ma Lewis Covin, of Abbeville Dis. S C., says he has sold several boxes of Hull's Pills, and never knew them to fail curing the chills and fever in a single instance.

Mr Wm S Mills, of Abbeville Dis, S. C., certifies that his wife was cured of an obstinate case of chills and fever of twelve months standing with only half a box of Hull's Pills; and also says his little daughter was cured of the chills and fever of 6 months standing with the remainder of the same box.

We might give scores of references and certificates, but we refer the reader to our agents, where they may obtain a pamphlet (gratis) giving a full description of the medicine and its manner of use. Price, $1 per box with directions.

Dr. Hull's Cough Lozenges. Every family in the United States should keep a supply of Dr Hull's Cough Lozenges in the house, not only as a preventive medicine against the consumptive tendencies of the climate, but as an effectual remedy in all cases of Coughs, Colds, Spitting of Blood, night Sweats, difficulty of breathing, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Emacia-tion and General debility. Remember that this medicine is not a mere palliative, but is all powerful in removing all diseases of the Chest and Lungs, leading to Consumption and death. Price 25 cts per box. Dr. Hull's Worm Lozenges Are a preparation that never fail to re-move Worms from children or adults.

Children will cry for them, and eat them as they would candy.

We suggest to all parents having children whom they suspect of being troubled with worms to give these Lozenges a trial. The fact of their having cured upwards of forty thousand cases, puts their efficiency beyond doubt. Price 25 cts per box. Please remember the name and get Dr.

Hull's Lozenges, as no others before the public contain the virtues of his mediciue.
